TEAM HAPPENINGS

Leadership Update

I'm excited to share an important leadership update at Education Associates.

Alle Gouveia has been promoted to President of Education Associates, Inc.

I will continue to serve as CEO and remain actively involved in our mission and work nationwide.

Alle Gouveia

Alle's promotion is both well-deserved and well-earned. As Vice President of Business Development, she has been instrumental in driving our growth, strengthening our foundation, and advancing our mission to empower every student to be Job Ready and Life Ready with clarity, integrity, and purpose. She leads with vision, decisiveness, and heart - and she consistently raises the bar for our entire organization.

Alle brings a strong background in economics, marketing, and executive leadership, along with a deep personal commitment to the students and communities we serve.

We are thrilled to have Alle step into this role and help lead Education Associates into its next chapter.

Please join me in congratulating Alle on this exciting new role.

Tim Hagan
CEO, Education Associates, Inc.
